About LABIO

LABIO is a biotechnology specialist, that optimizes fermentation technology and uses extremophilic microorganisms to create dermatological benefits through cell engineering.

LABIO's Ground-breaking Technology implements the amalgamation of four different concepts:

Extremophiles

Extremophilic microorganisms thrive in extraordinary conditions, exhibiting unique preferences such as acid-loving, thermo-loving, or cold-loving traits. Unlike typical microorganisms, they possess opposite characteristics and hold great potential for benefiting human skin when harnessed appropriately in cosmetics and personal care products

Choose from Labio's diverse range of numerous beneficial actives like rejuvenation, anti-acne, SPF boosters, anti-dandruff, and so on.
